Growth Group Homework – November 4, 2018

The Last Word on Politics

Warm-Up

1. Do you keep up with politics or avoid them?
2. What is the most ridiculous advertisement you have received in the mail?

Talk it Over

3. Looking back at your notes from this week's message, what did you find most challenging, helpful, or troubling?
4. Read the following passages and summarize what they reveal is taking place in the world.

Ephesians 2:1-2

Galatians 1:3-5

2 Corinthians 4:4

1 Peter 5:8
  - What are some of the benefits of understanding this landscape?
  - Based on this landscape, what do you think are some of the challenges for Christians when it comes to politics?
5. Can you think of a time when the group around you thought something was true/right, but you knew it was a lie/wrong? How did you respond?

6. Revelation calls for us to be wise in response to propaganda and deception. Read the following passages. What do they show us about living wisely?

Psalm 119:89-96

Romans 16:17-19

Ephesians 5:15-17

- What would be some practical ways to avoid deception? Do you have any personal experience with these?
  - Imagine a friend of yours was trying to figure out how to be wise in this world we live in. Based on these passages, what advice could you give them?
7. Jeremiah 29:4-7 is written to a group of people in hostile political environments. How does God instruct them to live and what are the reasons why?
    - In our community, what might be some good examples of applying this passage?

Take it Home

8. What is one thing from the message or this discussion that you would like to apply this week?
