Growth Group Homework – October 28, 2018 The Last Word on Witness  Warm-Up  1. When you think of angels, what comes to mind?	5. Bevan talked about "thoughtfully inviting broken people to experience transformation in Christ." As a person who realizes your own brokenness, how have you experienced transformation in Christ? What are some specific examples?
What are some common situations where you have to choose your words carefully?	What do you think are some approaches to sharing faith that are not thoughtful?
<ul><li>Talk it Over</li><li>3. Looking back at your notes from this week's message, what did you find most challenging, helpful, or troubling?</li></ul>	<ul> <li>A person who wants to do their part as a witness puts in time and thought to learn and apply God's word as well as to get to know others. What does this look like for you?</li> </ul>
<ol> <li>In the following passages, what is God communicating through the food metaphor?</li> <li>Matthew 5:6</li> </ol>	6. Read 1 Corinthians 1:26-2:5. What does this passage teach us about both ourselves and sharing our faith?
Hebrews 5:14
1 Peter 2:2	When was a time you experienced what this passage is describing? Explain.
<ul> <li>Has there been a time that you applied something from God's word and were later able to use it in your witness?</li> </ul>	Take it Home 7. What do you need to apply this week to be a personal witness?
