The Last Word on Worship

Warm-Up

1. What was the last musical or concert you attended? What did you think?
2. What is your favorite kind of music?

Talk it Over

3. Looking back at your notes from this week's message, what did you find most challenging, helpful, or troubling?
4. Read Revelation 4:1-11. In this passage John describes what he saw taking place in heaven and what the future holds. As you read this, what sort of God is described here? What are the responses to Him?
 - What are some of the other thrones that people center their lives around in life?
 - How have church services helped you re-center your life around what is really important?

5. Bevan explained how church services help us center on what is most important, remember as we gather with others to get off our thrones and serve God, understand Scripture so we can apply it to our lives, and bow our hearts through singing. Which of these do you most often experience? Give a specific example.

6. Read the following passages. What are some of the guidelines and warnings given about worship in these passages?

Psalm 95:6-8

Matthew 15:7-9

2 Timothy 4:3-4

- What might be the indicators that someone is not paying attention to these warnings?

Take it Home

7. Based on the homework and this discussion, what is one thing you can apply to your life this week?
