#MeToo

Warm-Up

1. What musicians, actors, or celebrities had the greatest influence on you when you were younger?
2. What area of behavior did your parents have a zero tolerance for when you were a child or teenager?

Talk it Over

3. Looking back at your notes from this week's message, what did you find most challenging, helpful, or troubling?
4. Bevan explained how the sexual boundary of marriage is protection for both men and women. Read the following passages. How are these instructions protection for both men and women?

Hebrews 13:4

1 Timothy 2:9-10

1 Timothy 5:1-2

- What do you think the experience would be for both men and women if these passages were lived out?

5. Read Ephesians 5:1-17 and make a list of all the commands. Which ones are positive (do this) and which are prohibitive (do not do this)?

- Verse 16 states that the "days are evil." How have you seen or experienced the items we are not to do be celebrated, laughed about, or presented as positives?

- Which items on the two lists have you seen increase in value in our culture and which have decreased in our culture?

Take it Home

6. Read Romans 12:2. Looking back over the entire R-Rated series, what is something you would like to study further, apply, or share with someone?
