Love Never Fails

Our understanding of love is often too weak and shallow to handle the reality of loving in a sinful world. Courageous love protects both ourselves and others, it works to become the kind of person others can trust, keeps hoping God will turn people's lives around, and keeps moving forward no matter what.

Warm-Up

1. Are you someone who finds it easy or hard to trust people? Why?

2. What are some common approaches we take to protect ourselves from getting hurt?

Talk it Over

3. What challenged you the most about this week's message and why?

4. Read 1 Corinthians 13:1-13. Which aspect of love stands out to you in this passage?

5. Bevan explained how there are verbal and physical walls needed to protect ourselves and privacy and mercy walls that protect others. Which of these is hardest for you and why?

- Read 1 Corinthians 13:7 again. How do these aspects of love challenge your understanding of what love does?

6. Read Philippians 1:9-10. What are some ways a person could go about growing more in knowledge and depth of insight in a relationship?

- What has your experience been with this?

Take it Home

7. Can you think of a relationship where you need to apply one of the aspects of love from 1 Corinthians 13:7? What will it look like for you to do this?

8. Out of this series, what is one way you want to love more courageously?

Memorize: 1 Corinthians 13:7
