Growth Group Homework – October 8, 2017

The Golden Rules

Once we have the foundation for love, we can begin to love courageously. As we do this, and loving people is our focus, there is an opportunity for their hearts to soften and begin to change. This happens as we create an environment of safety, wait for questions before we give answers, and pray for them.

Warm-Up

1. What is the worst advice you have ever received?

2. When do you feel most safe in a relationship? Why is that?

Talk it Over

3. What challenged you the most about this week's message and why?

4. We don't have the power to change people. How have you experienced this? What have you done to try to change difficult people?

5. Read Ephesians 2:4-10. How do these verses address our fear of judgment?

- In what ways can this impact our relationships with others?

6. Read Titus 3:3-7 and Romans 7:21-25. What do these two passages teach us about ourselves?
- Safe people don't shake their heads in disgust at the sins of others because they have spent time struggling with their own. Who do you know that is a good example of this and how do people respond to them?

- Think about a difficult relationship. In what ways can you relate to the other person? How do you see their sin in your own struggle?

7. In Jesus' last hours before his death He dealt with many difficult people. Read Luke 23:34. What can we learn from Jesus' prayer?

Take it Home

8. What is a difficult relationship you need to ask God for help in? What are some specifics you can ask for?
