Accelerate: The Habit of Bible Study

When it comes to being spiritually fit, the habit of Bible study is essential. As Christians, it is common to wonder why we should spend time reading God's Word. If we don't have to do it, why would we? This thinking overlooks what God is offering us when he invites us to practice the habit of Bible Study.

Warm-Up

1. Who would you consider your best friend? What did it take to develop that friendship?

2. What are a few activities you usually are not motivated to do? Do you end up doing them? Why or why not?

Talk it Over

3. What part of the message stood out to you and why?

4. Read Psalm 119:33-40. How would you describe the writer's attitude towards God and the Bible? How does this compare with your common attitude?

5. Read Hebrews 5:11-14. What are the actions associated with a person who is growing and one who is not?

What would it look like for you to practice the actions of the person who is growing in your personal time with God?

6. Adam explained how reading prayerfully, regularly, and actively are necessary when studying the Bible. What has been your experience with these three?

Is one of these more challenging for you than the others? How so?

Take it Home

7. What is a practical step you could take this week to grow in the habit of Bible study?
